ATTENTION SHIFTS
NOW TOWARD BERLIN
GRAVELY EXPECTANT

President Wilson Will Probably Wait Until the End of the Week for Reply to His Ultimatum—Official Washington Evidences Its Appreciation of the Crisis.

Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, April 20.—The United States Government, having said last word to Germany in the submarine controversy, turned today with grave expectancy to Berlin, where rests the decision whether the imperial Government shall abandon its present method of submarine warfare or break with Washington. President Wilson probably will wait at least until the end of the week for Germany to reply to his ultimatum. Congress assembled today impressed with the deep significance to the president's action. The impassioned words in which President Wilson yesterday told a joint session of the House and Senate of his purpose, took on a fuller force, meaning, when publication of the ultimatum to Germany, almost identical with the address in outline and phrase, revealed in what unmistakable terms the American Government had declared itself. Count von Bernstorff, optimistic throughout the long negotiations that have approached a crisis, was hopeful that his government would find a way to prevent a break in relations. Last night he sent a long message to Berlin, said to recommend that some assurances were given regarding submarine operations in the Mediterranean should now be drawn around all submarine operations.

BERNSTORFF IS EXPECTING
SOME DELAY

German Ambassador Called at State Department This Morning and Stated That a Reply Was Not Likely for Some Days.

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, April 20.—Count von Bernstorff went to the State Department today for a conference with Secretary Lansing. After the conference, it was learned that German diplomats regard the receipt of a reply from Germany within two or three days as physically impossible. It was thought a reply could not be received here before ten days. It was pointed out that Easter Monday is a holiday in Germany, and that necessary consultations of officials would cause almost another week to elapse before the German decision could be transmitted here. Ambassador Bernstorff refused to discuss his conversation with Secretary Lansing, but indicated his call was not prompted by the arrival of instructions from his government.

SCULPTOR TALKS
ON HINDENBURG

(Associated Press Cable) Berlin, April 20.—Professor Heinrich Cauer, a well known sculptor who has been engaged for some time on a bust of Hindenburg, contributes to the Bauseitung a pen picture of the popular military leader.

"Hindenburg's entire figure," he writes, "from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet, measures a trifle over six feet. He holds himself with soldierly erectness, but his head is usually bent forward, a habit of a knight in armor. Wore a bit which one always notices in big men accustomed to speak with those of lesser stature. He gives you the impression of a knight in armor. His deep voice, and his remarks, often whimsical, but never injurious or ironical, are full of kindness and friendliness.

"If you look at Hindenburg closely you will notice a furrow over the nose drawn between the swellings of the brow. This furrow has been graven by the gigantic responsibilities of the present war. You get the impression of strain and even suffering, an impression somehow heightened by the yellow color of the skin. "The Field Marshall is lean. Photographs had led me to expect a fat man. But he is actually thin, and this thinness increases the impression of energy in the face and is certainly preferable from the artist's point of view."

TWENTY DIE IN TORNADO

Missouri and Kansas Swept By Frightful Storm Which Damages Property to the Amount of $700,000.

By Associated Press Dispatch. Kansas City, April 20.—Reports received up to noon today from the tornado swept sections of Missouri and Kansas indicated the death list in yesterday's storms would reach twenty.

Over 100 persons were injured. Property damage probably will amount to more than $750,000.

HEARS OF VILLA CHASE

By Associated Press Dispatch. Port Clinton, O., April 20.—Captain Chauncey Fitzmorris, lightkeeper on West Sister Island in Lake Erie, received his first news of the chase after Villa by American troops when he came to shore a few days ago after being confined to his island quarters since Dec. 1. During this time he had not seen a newspaper nor communicated with the outside world in any way.

Expeditionary Forces "Mark Time" While Villa Flees South Into Durango.

By Associated Press Dispatch. GENERAL PERSHING'S CAMP AT FRONT, APRIL 20.—AMERICAN AEROPLANES HAVE BEEN FIRED UPON SEVERAL TIMES BY MEXICANS, AND IN AT LEAST ONE CASE THE ASSAILANTS WERE CARRANZA SOLDIERS.

By Associated Press Dispatch. El Paso, Texas, April 20.—While the American punitive expedition is marking time today in its pursuit of Villa, efforts are being made to strengthen army bases and lines of communication.

Fears are openly expressed by army officers that should an order come to withdraw the American troops, the Villa and other marauding bands will raise the cry that the American troops are in retreat; with the result that American soldiers will be subject to constant night attacks and sniping as they retire from Mexico.

To prevent such warfare against his columns, General Pershing is preparing to be in position to move his forces in large units.

The belief is general at Fort Bliss that the troops will encounter more difficulties in a withdrawal from Mexico than they did on their rapid 400-mile drive from Columbus to Parral.

No word has come from General Cavazos, who, with Colonel Carranza, was reported to have gone to San Francisco Borja to bring back the supposed body of Villa.

Officers of the Juarez garrison fear that General Cavazos has been led into a trap and he and his command ambushed.

A dispatch from Chihuahua today says that the Parral district is quiet and that Villa has passed far south into Durango, many miles from the nearest American column now resting at a point near Parral.

DISCOURAGING

By Associated Press Dispatch.

San Antonio, Texas, April 20.—Early withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico or the authorization of military operations on a big scale must result from General Scott's investigation of the situation, is the opinion of army officers here.

Villa, if he is alive, can be caught, officers here say, only by the adoption of a plan that Mexicans almost certainly would characterize as a war.

He has penetrated so far into Mexico that army officers are convinced further operations must be undertaken with the understanding that armed opposition by factions will be met.

AT STANDSTILL

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, N. M., April 20.—Unofficial reports seeping over the border today indicated that the pursuit of Villa was yet at a standstill and it was believed here that no move would be made in the campaign until after the return to Washington of General Scott, chief of staff, from his consultation at San Antonio with General Funston. Attention among military men here temporarily was deflected from the Mexican situation to the German situation.

VILLA DEAD

By Associated Press Dispatch.

El Paso, Texas, April 20.—The growing belief that Francisco Villa is dead, whether or not his body has been recovered, was strengthened today by messages received by American concerns here from their agents in Parral, Santa Barbara and vicinity.

All of these messages agreed that the report of Villa's death was common among the peons in northern Chihuahua and was generally accepted as true.

DUCKS TO EAT
MOSQUITO PEST

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Toledo, O., April 20.—Mosquitoes are not going to be permitted to enjoy their former freedom from harm in this city. The Zoological society has ordered a flock of ducks and this summer the sole work of these ducks will be to eat larvae of the insects and prevent breeding. An attempt will be made to get wild ducks to hatch for the lagoons and marshes.

FORD WINNING
BRYAN LOSING

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Omaha, Neb., April 20.—Latest returns from Tuesday's preferential primary have increased the lead given by early reports to Henry Ford for the Republican presidential nomination.

William Jennings Bryan, former Secretary of State, candidate for delegate-at-large to the Democratic national convention, is running sixth. There are seven candidates.

Germans Make Drive in New Field in an Attempt to Flank French, Which Is Repulsed.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

London, April 20.—Russia has come to the aid of France and Great Britain in the great struggle on the western front, sending a strong force of troops to fight with the Entente Allies there.

The Russians disembarked at Marseilles at noon today, their arrival noted by General Joffre, who cited their coming as another striking proof of Russia's devotion to the common cause of the allies.

The Russians are believed to have embarked for France from the port of Archangel, on the White Sea.

In this connection, it is to be noted that word reached New York today that they had closed the port of Archangel to all except government traffic.

This may indicate that other troops movements from Archangel to the western front are either under way or in contemplation.

Ambassador Gerard at Berlin has received the American note to Germany.

The Berlin dispatch reporting the arrival of the note said the Ambassador was expected to present it to the Foreign Office this afternoon.

(Associated Press Cable)

London, April 20.—The French again have taken the offensive in the Verdun battle and launched attacks against the German lines on the right bank of the Meuse.

Paris declares the aggressive move was successful, resulting in the capture of portions of German trenches and a redoubt and in the taking of several hundred prisoners.

This operation on the part of General Petain's forces follows closely a German move in a new field in the struggle of the fortress.

This took the form of a drive on the extreme right flank of the French forces in this sector, three successive attacks being delivered 13 miles southeast of Verdun on the edge of the Woivre plain.

Military observers have long expected such operation on the part of the Germans, as part of a long movement intended to force the evacuation of the fortress.

The new attempt was unsuccessful, however, Paris has reported, the Germans, having been driven by a counter attack out of the 200 yards of trenches they had succeeded in occupying.

According to a London dispatch, the British coalition government has been given a new lease of life, a settlement having been reached in the cabinet over the question of conscription.

A plot of wide scope, conducted for the purpose of causing a revolution in India, is announced from London to have been uncovered as a result of the seizure last February of German and Austrian subjects on the liner China, bound from Shanghai for the United States.

WILLIS OPPOSED
TO WILSON PLAN

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., April 20.—Governor Willis today made this comment on President Wilson's action yesterday:

"Basing my opinion of the statement of facts given by the President to Congress, I deem severance of diplomatic relations with Germany at this time inadvisable.

"Our country should maintain strict neutrality and play no favorites. Patriotic Americans should aid the preservation of peace by keeping out of the war zone."

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Youngstown, O., April 20.—Dr. H. G. Huffman, local opometrist who after doctors said he could live but a short time, resorted to fasting and went on greatly reduced diet 47 days in 1914 and 31 days in 1915, has announced he is beginning a third fast. This time his wife will also eat very sparingly. This will be in accordance with Dr. Huffman's statement that "fasting is nature's most rational method of getting diseased bodies and minds back into conditions of ease and health."

BAINBRIDGE BOOZE

Too much Bainbridge booze caused Jock Holmes to fall into the police net as he stepped from the D. T. & I. Wednesday afternoon, and after a night in jail he left $10, all he had, with Mayor Oster, and a promise to pay the remaining 35c and an additional 5c having borrowed the latter to get tobacco.

When arrested the man had a quart of whiskey, six bottles of beer and quart of alcohol. This was kept at the Mayor's office, and Holmes was informed that he could have the same when he got ready to leave the city, Solicitor Gregg having ruled that the man was entitled to the booze under the above circumstances.

SUNDAY, MAY 14, IS MOTHER'S DAY

By designation of Miss Anna Jarvis, founder of Mothers' Day, Mrs. Samuel L. Black of Lancaster is looking after the observance in Ohio and has just sent to the mayors of 100 Ohio cities a request that they supplement the governor's proclamation of Sunday, May 14.

The desire is, as in other years, to have everybody wear on that day a white flower, preferably a carnation—white being symbolic of the purity of mother love. There has been some disposition in the past to wear the white for mothers who are dead and pink for those who are living, but it is the thought of Miss Jarvis that this arrangement misses the point, which is to pay a tribute to the purity of the mother love. So, if there is need of variation from the standard of a white carnation, it should be in the flower and not in the color.

TIRED WORKING MEN

A Local Druggist Suggests a Remedy
 For Overworked, Run-Down
 Men.

The following letter from Manager Hodes, recounts the experience and condition of many Washington Court House men. Read this letter and our offer which follows:

Brooklyn, N. Y., "I am a general office manager, and became so nervous and run-down in health that I lost my appetite and finally my health broke down completely. Largely because of overwork. I tried Beef Iron and Wine, and other remedies without help. I saw Vinol advertised, and soon after taking it I noticed an improvement. I now have a hearty appetite, sleep better, feel better and have gained considerable in weight." Samuel Hodes, 501 Stone Ave.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the three oldest and most famous tonics, viz.—the medicinal elements of fresh cod livers without oil, peptonate of iron and beef peptone.

We ask every run-down, overworked man in Washington Court House to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be refunded if it fails to help them as it did Mr. Hodes. Blackmer & Tanquary. Advt.

WILLHITE MEETINGS

The tabernacle program is drawing large crowds each evening. Over 2000 people were present Sunday evening. Beginning yesterday afternoon meetings will be held each day at 2:30 o'clock.

At the Sunday evening meeting there were eighteen conversions, and many more who asked for prayer.

On Wednesday evening, music will be furnished by a local quartette of ladies and for Thursday night the management expects to secure a male quartette.

It is the idea of evangelist Willhite to hold shop meetings at the various industries during the noon hour and accordingly the first one will be held today (Wednesday) at Globe furnace. Others will follow as appointments are made.—Jackson Herald.

The Preferred Clothes of the American Young Man

THERE'S hardly a young man in this broad land who isn't familiar with the name of Adler-Rochester Towne Togs—

And who doesn't know—somehow or other—that they are the standard of Quality.

Quality of Style, first of all. The fine, free spirit of design that every young man wants—the smart, new freshness that the designer puts into every line and swing of the coat; the even, custom tailored drape of the perfect fitting trousers.

Quality of Material, as well. Clothes of guaranteed worth—patterns of distinctive beauty—tones and colors that stand out from the crowd.

We have these fine clothes—our new Spring stocks were never so widely varied; never so filled with the kind of styles our own young men want.

Easter is hovering pretty close, remember --and you will be needing new things soon.

There's lots of time, NOW. Later, we can't say. Come in today.

The "Last Word" to Germany

"What this government foresaw must happen has happened. Tragedy has followed tragedy on the high seas in such fashion, with such attendant circumstances as to make it grossly evident that warfare of such sort, if warfare it be, cannot be carried on without the most palpable violation of the dictates alike of right and humanity," President Wilson told Congress, convened in joint session, Wednesday noon, when he announced that he had sent a virtual ultimatum to Germany.

The President of the United States has spoken the last word to the Imperial German government in the long diplomatic controversy which has been going on since February, 1915.

Sober thinking people have long foreseen that Germany could not continue on the piratical course of warfare inaugurated by her submarine commanders without, sooner or later, reaching this grave stage in a crisis that has so long endured.

The President has been patient under the most extraordinarily trying circumstances.

The German military power has refused to keep its submarine warfare "within the bounds set by either reason or the heart of mankind" and the chief executive of this great neutral nation, who has done his utmost to preserve friendly relations, has notified the German government that such warfare must stop immediately.

There can be no further discussion of acts inexcusable on any principle of law or humanity.

Our demand is made in the name of humanity. There is nothing selfish about it. The rights of humanity are the predicate of the note.

Congress has been fully advised of all the details of the long drawn out controversy and the "accumulated evidence" of Germany's violation of all assurances has been placed before the legislative body.

The only discordant note in America's support of the President is the utterance of Representative Mann, who openly asserts that the action was taken for political effect. That assertion may be passed without comment and charitably excused as due to incompetency.

The nation supported the President in his patient dealings with the great issues which have confronted him and the nation now, when patient endurance is no longer possible, supports him when "a just conception of the rights of mankind" force him to take the step he has taken "with the utmost solemnity and firmness."

The position of President Wilson is unassailable. His logic is irrefutable and the clearness with which he states the case of the American people and the rights of humanity admits of no challenge.

Germany cannot longer remain the enemy of humanity and maintain friendly relations with the United States.

Local Labor Shortage

The fact that two of Washington's prosperous manufacturing institutions—the shoe factory and the mitten factory—have been compelled to establish branch plants in nearby cities and towns while, of course, a matter of regret to Washington people, at the same time speaks volumes for the activity and the growth of these industries and for the demand for workers in this city.

In brief a shortage of labor in this community is proof indisputable of its abundant prosperity and the plenty of work to be done here.

That local manufacturing concerns are compelled to locate branches elsewhere in order to obtain labor demonstrates the existence of a much healthier community condition than would be disclosed if the people of the community were going elsewhere in hunt of work.

Washington regrets, of course, that these local concerns are compelled to go elsewhere for labor, but at the same time we are pleased to learn that Wilmington will thus be enabled to secure work for its unemployed.

All of which calls to mind the fact that the houses for rent in this city are "few and far between," another positive proof of the city's prosperity.

Poetry For Today

RILEY'S ADMONITION.

When over the fair fame of friend or foe
The shadow of disgrace shall fall;
Instead
Of words of blame or proof of thus and so,
Let something good be said.

Forget not that no fellow being yet
May fall so low but love may lift his head;
Even the cheek of shame with tears is wet,
If something good be said.

No generous heart may vainly turn aside
In ways of sympathy; no soul so dead
But may awake strong and glorified.
If something good be said.

And so I charge ye, by the thorny crown,
And by the cross on which the Savior bled,
And by your own soul's hope for fair renown,
Let something good be said.

—James Whitcomb Riley.

What Christmas gifts are to Americans and persons of other nationalities Easter gifts are to Russians. HISTORY WAS MADE

Wilson's Address Before Congress Favorably Received.

Washington, April 20.—Walle President Wilson's address in the main was favorably received by congress, there was some adverse comment by some Republicans and dissatisfaction on the part of some Democrats. The president was criticised by some because he sent his note to Germany before he had taken congress into his confidence. Those members of congress say the president promised to take no decisive action without informing congress and that he failed to lay the matter before the legislative body until it was too late for congress to act.

Most of the leaders, Democratic and Republican, thought the president hardly could do less, and some expressed the opinion that his action would not lead to war. Republican Leader Mann openly attacked the president for his stand. He characterized it as a political play.

Both the president's address and the American note declare in unequivocal terms that only by Germany's acceding to the demand can the breaking off of relations altogether be prevented.

In his address before congress the president concluded as follows: "I have deemed it my duty to say to the Imperial government that if it is still its purpose to prosecute relentless and indiscriminate warfare against vessels of commerce by the use of submarines, notwithstanding the now demonstrated impossibility of conducting that warfare in accordance with what the government of the United States must consider the sacred and indisputable rules of international law and the universally recognized dictates of humanity, the government of the United States is at least forced to the conclusion that there is but one course it can pursue, and that unless the Imperial government should now immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of warfare against passenger and freight carrying vessels this government can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations with the government of the German empire altogether."

The president added that he arrived at this decision with the deepest regret.

If Christ Be Not Risen.

If Christ be not risen, then death has absolute power in the world. If the cross of mankind kills so that there can be no future making alive, then Christ himself becomes the greatest witness to this fact, the wisest and most powerful and purest of men having no defense against death and no power afterward of returning into life.

—Rev. Dr. Richard S. Storrs.

FOR THE EASTER TABLE.

The favorite Easter colors—violet, green, yellow and white—lend themselves so attractively to the table decorations, and it is so easy to make centerpieces of fluffy chickens or rabbit families that most women feel quite competent to arrange their own Easter tables. However, the hostess who is willing to accept her schemes ready made may profit by the advice of one who is an expert in arranging tables.

"One of the prettiest ways," she says, "is to use violets—quantities of them—and little white plaster or papier mache rabbits. A low bowl, gilt basket or deep silver dish or tray may be filled with violets and surrounded by a half dozen or more white bunnies. At each place have a white spun sugar rabbit holding a bunch of violets and foliage. The menu or name cards should be violet tinted; the ice cream cases made of white satin, with the ribbon violets on top, these to be used as little pincushions later, or they can be of violet satin, with a little white satin bunny surmounting it. Candel violet in the bonbon dishes will help to carry out the color motif.

"Nothing is prettier or simpler for an Easter table than the long, narrow green or gilt wicker baskets filled with the growing crocuses. Potted tulips in the new oval shaped rock crystal bowls are equally lovely. If artificial light is necessary when this centerpiece is used the tulip shaped fairy lamps tinted green might be used at each cover."

BADLY HURT IN 18-FOOT FALL

As the result of a fall sustained Wednesday afternoon while roofing the new house being erected on the Jennie Long farm on the White pike, Wayne township, Charles McGath, of New Holland sustained injuries of a very serious nature when the scaffolding upon which he and Ernest Morris, of New Holland, were standing, collapsed.

The two men were some 18 feet from the ground when the scaffolding gave way, and Morris was in a position where he succeeded in grasping a lath and prevented himself from falling as the scaffolding dropped away from beneath him.

However, McGath, who is about 25 years of age, was less fortunate than Morris, and went down with the scaffolding, sustaining a fracture of the right arm, fracture of bones in the left hand, left collar bone broken in two places, skull probably fractured and serious cuts and bruises.

The man was rendered unconscious for sometime, and it was first believed that his injuries were fatal. He was removed from the broken scaffolding and Dr. Kaler of New Holland summoned.

After working over the injured man for sometime, the Daily ambulance from New Holland was summoned and the man reoved to the home of his father, Samuel McGath, where he is now in a serious condition, although his speedy recovery is expected.

Thursday he was unconscious, but complained of excruciating pain in his head, due to the concussion suffered when he struck upon the sharp edge of a section of the scaffolding, laying the scalp open for several inches.

RED TAPE ON EAST SEWER IS UNWINDING

If present steps do not fail, the East End sewer, noted for many years as a source of minor floods and annoyances generally, may be properly improved before snow flies again.

Solicitor Gregg has prepared the papers necessary to formally place the matter in the hands of the county commissioners, and if no hitch is experienced, the improvement of the ditch from the Pennsylvania railroad to the B. & O. railroad is expected.

A petition for the improvement, directed to the County Commissioners and signed by Mayor Oster, has been filed with Auditor Pine to be submitted to the commissioners at their next meeting.

The ditch has been tiled with sewer tile from the creek to a point about midway between Columbus avenue and the Lewis pike, above that point the ditch is open and drains into a sewer inadequate to take care of flood waters.

ADDRESSES LETTER TO ALL MOTHERS

Miss Sutton, Welfare Nurse, has addressed the following letter to mothers in general, relative to the Mother's Conference, the first of which will be held in this city Saturday afternoon.

"Baby health means Washington's wealth," as you are familiar with the high infant mortality in this city due mostly from improper feeding of children under three years of age, we have found it necessary to start a prophylactic station and conference in the care and feeding of infants, especially bottle-fed babies.

This conference is for mothers and expectant mothers in which they will be instructed in the proper care and feeding of their baby under the directions of their family physician.

Home visits will be made whenever necessary for the interest of the child.

The object is to decrease the death rate among our babies, especially during the summer, in which so many die of the so-called summer complaint which is due to improper feeding.

Dear Mothers; your child's health is your individual problem, no doubt a hard one, but it is one of our community problems and we are here to help you to keep your baby well, that he may grow to be a strong and healthy citizen. We expect your hearty co-operation in the interest and welfare of your child.

These conferences will be held weekly at the Welfare Rooms at Market and Main streets, every Saturday at 2:30 p. m., starting April 22. Come and let us help you.

ANNA LAURA SUTTON,
Public Health Nurse.

TRIAL POSTPONED COSTS NOT ASSURED

Alton Porter, accused of bootlegging, appeared before Mayor Oster, Thursday morning, to stand trial on the charge lodged against him by Elizabeth Minshall, but failure of the costs being guaranteed and also that the Minshall woman and her attorney did not appear at the hour set, resulted in a postponement of the case for ten days. One of the questions to be settled when the case does come to trial is whether or not evidence given by the accused, while on the witness stand in another case, can be turned against him.

The outcome of the Minshall-Porter cases will be awaited with no little interest.

The detachment when made up will be composed of twenty-eight men, under command of a sergeant. It will be made up of two details. The marines have been instructed to take over the huge aerial transmission station and permit no messages to be sent without the authorization of the navy department.

Washington, April 20.—Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, sent to Berlin a long dispatch, interpreting the situation in Washington and making certain recommendations. PRESIDENT PUTS IT UP TO KAISER

Present Methods of Submarine Warfare Must Cease.

NOTE SENT TO GERMANY

Severance of Diplomatic Relations Between United States and the Imperial Government Will Follow Rejection of American Demands. Count Von Bernstorff Determined to Fight to the End.

Washington, April 20.—The note President Wilson sent to Berlin makes the same demand on Germany that was outlined in the president's address to congress.

Germany must immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of submarine warfare against passenger and freight carrying ships or the United States will sever diplomatic relations.

At the state department the president's demand is interpreted to mean that Germany must abandon its submarine campaign against merchant shipping altogether. The German embassy interprets the note to mean that present methods must be abandoned and that less rigorous methods of submarine warfare or more discrimination in attacks on neutral ships would meet the president's demand. Unfortunately, officials point out the president's message and his note are both ambiguous in this regard.

Opportunity to Reply.

The note leaves Germany an opportunity to reply that the imperial government will endeavor to conform to Wilson's demand by a revision of the rules now governing the warning of passenger ships and merchantmen and by agreeing adequately to provide for the safety of the crews. There are indications that Germany might agree to do this.

Count Von Bernstorff will make a final effort to avert a diplomatic break by reopening negotiations along these lines. Officials here said that negotiations might be reopened, provided Germany immediately declared and effected an abandonment of its submarine warfare before these negotiations were undertaken; in other words, if Germany will agree to aid its submarine campaign in abeyance while it is negotiating with the United States, there would be no disposition upon the part of the United States government to press matters unduly. But it was made clear that an immediate cessation of Germany's submarine campaign was the only contingency on which the matter could be reopened. There is grave doubt here whether the imperial government will agree to this, and if it refuses a break seems almost inevitable.

Germany's Position.

The word "immediately" in the president's demand is likely to be the outstanding feature so far as Germany is concerned. Count Von Bernstorff has not, of course, had time to learn officially his government's views, but he understands pretty well what Berlin's attitude will be. He is understood to despair of any immediate cessation of the submarine campaign unless Great Britain in the meantime relaxes the rigors of the blockade. Germany is willing to declare a truce in submarine activities in order that this question may be discussed and settled with the United States, provided Great Britain will take similar action in the blockade. But the German government is unwilling to permit Great Britain to continue tightening the blockade while it is temporarily forced to abandon its campaign of reprisal.

This is the wording of the demand that the president in his note makes upon Germany: "Unless the imperial government should now immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of submarine warfare against passenger and freight carrying vessels, the government of the United States can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations with the German empire altogether."

Features of the Note.

The American note to Berlin declares:

"The government of the United States has been very patient. It has accepted the successive explanations and assurances of the imperial government as of course given in entire sincerity and good faith, and has hoped even against hope, that it would prove to be possible for the imperial government so to order and control the acts of its naval commanders as to square its policy with the recognized principles of humanity as embodied in the law of nations. It has made every allowance for unprecedented conditions and has been willing to wait until the facts became unmistakable and were susceptible of only one interpretation.

"It now owes it to a just regard for its own rights to say to the imperial government that that time has come.

"It has become painfully evident to it that the position which it took at the very outset is inevitable, namely, the use of submarines for the destruction of an enemy's commerce is of necessity because of the very character of the vessels employed and the very methods of attack which their employment of course involves, utterly incompatible with the principles of humanity, the long established and incontrovertible rights of neutrals and the sacred immunities of non-combatants.

"If it is still the purpose of the imperial government to prosecute relentless and indiscriminate warfare against vessels of commerce by the use of submarines, without regard to what the government of the United States must consider the sacred and indisputable rules of international law and the universally recognized dictates of humanity, the government of the United States is at last forced to the conclusion that there is but one course it can pursue.

Break Threatened.

"Unless the imperial government should now immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of submarine warfare against passenger and freight carrying vessels, the government of the United States can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations with the German empire altogether. This action the government of the United States contemplates with the greatest reluctance, but feels constrained to take in behalf of humanity and the rights of neutral nations."

The United States, the communication declares, considers the torpedoing of the Sussex not only proved by the evidence, but actually substantiated by the German disclaimer of responsibility.

The general feeling is that the break, if it occurs, will come within a week. It is known that Secretary Lansing expects to hear from Ambassador Gerard within two or three days informing him of Germany's reply to the president's demand for immediate action. If the Berlin government delays the reply more than a few days an urgent demand for a reply is likely to be sent to Berlin by the United States government, according to state department officials.

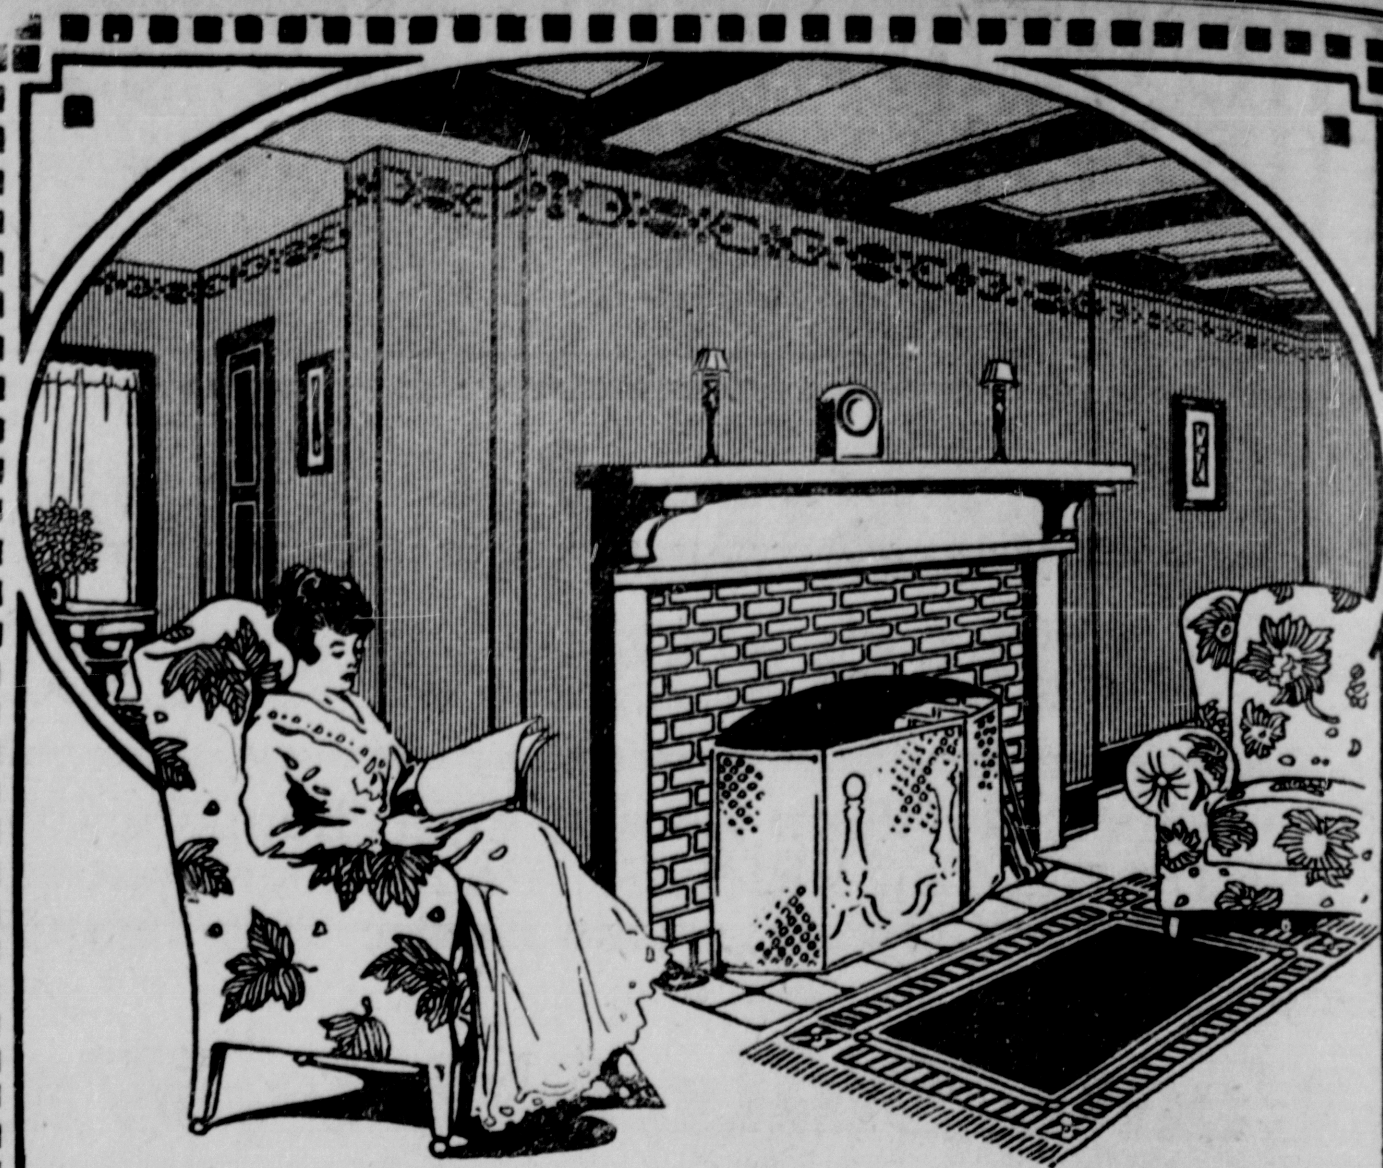

Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, was at the state department today. He regards the prospects of adjusting the matter as almost an impossibility, but is determined to fight to the end. He has not heard from his government and entertains little hope that Germany will agree to abandon the submarine warfare against merchant shipping. The note contains evidence that the Sussex was sunk by a German torpedo.

"PUT 'EM BACK"

(By American Press)

Washington, April 20.—Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, made a formal and emphatic demand on Secretary of State Lansing for the immediate return of the papers which department of justice agents seized from Wolf Von Igel, private secretary to Captain Von Papen, former military attaché of the German embassy. The ambassador considers the seizure of the papers as direct violation of the recognized rights of a German diplomat, just as he considers the arrest of Von Igel an infringement on the sovereign rights of Germany. Secretary Lansing practically ordered the department of justice to release Von Igel from custody. Mr. Lansing also directed that the papers be returned.

French Front Between Cumieres and Le Mort Homme and Hill 304 Objects of German Assault—Russians Rout Turkish Force Near Erzerum. Italians Report Capture of Mountain Pass.

London, April 20.—In a furious bayonet attack, in which heavy casualties were inflicted on the French, the Germans captured a stone quarry near Handremont, northeast of Verdun.

There has been considerable artillery activity west of the Meuse on Hill 304, and the French lines between Le Mort Homme hill and Cumieres. At Les Eparges the Germans, after three attacks, entered French trenches on 200 yards, but were immediately expelled from there, suffering serious loss.

Artillery duels are still in progress on the Russian front, but there has been no important changes in positions. A Russian attack against Austrian positions on the upper Sereth river, in Galicia, was repulsed.

The Italians have captured Monte Fume Pass from the Austrians and taken the extreme western peak of Monte Anzora, where the Austrian trenches were shattered with heavy casualties to their occupants.

FOR BETTER ATTENTIONS

(By American Press)

Copenhagen, Denmark, April 20.—At the suggestion of the warring powers a plan is being considered by the Danish authorities for bringing prisoners who are seriously ill to Denmark, where they can receive better treatment than is possible in the overcrowded camps in hostile countries. This would include prisoners from all the powers at war. It is thought likely that one of the smaller Danish islands will be used for the purpose. The Danish authorities and the Danish people express great sympathy and everything will be done to carry out the idea.

SYNOPSIS.

Little Helen Holmes, daughter of General Holmes, railroad man, is rescued from imminent danger on a scenic rail road by George Storm, a newsboy. Grown to young womanhood, Helen saves Storm, now a fireman, her father, and his friends, Amos Rhinelander, financier, and Robert Seagrue, promoter, from a threatened collision. Safebreakers employed by Seagrue steal General Holmes' survey plans of the cut off line for the Tidewater, fatally wounding the general and escape. Her father's estate badly involved by his death, Helen goes to work on the Tidewater. Helen recovers the survey plans from Seagrue, and though they are taken from her, finds an accidentally made proof of the survey blueprint. Storm is employed by Rhinelander. Spike, befriended by Helen, in turn saves her and the right-of-way contracts when Seagrue kidnaps her. Helen and Storm win for Rhinelander a race against Seagrue for right-of-way. Helen, Storm and Rhinelander rescue Spike from Seagrue's men. Spike steals records to protect Rhinelander and Storm and Helen saves Spike from death in the burning of the courthouse.

While the negotiations had been taking shape, a freight train had pulled in a few miles distant at Valley station, where the crew set out an empty box car for loading. A teamster from the mine was summoned by the agent who handed him a note for the mine foreman. When the teamster reached the mine, the new purchasers were taking possession. He handed the message to the foreman. The foreman read:

Have empty box car here for high-grade ore. Send it down right away and local will pick the car up this P. M. LEN.

He turned to Rhinelander, showing him the message and pointing to the sacks ready for shipment.

Rhinelander was willing to ship the ore ready for the wagons at once. "All right," he said, nodding to the foreman. "Send what you have to the smelter right away."

Storm was given authority to put this part of the job through as quickly as possible. While the details were being talked over between Rhinelander and his assistant, neither of them noticed that they were overheard by Seagrue's tools, Bill and Lug, who now decided that there might be a chance to break into the mining business at their own proper risk and for their own private account. When Seagrue called them from the discussion of their ambitious project, he gave orders to Bill to drive back to Las Vegas. Reaching the station he took the train for the city.

With their boss out of the way, his two worthies thought the moment opportune for their own plans and taking the machine they started back for the mine.

Wagons—conveyed by two guards carrying sawed-off shotguns—had been loaded at the mine with the valuable quartz ore. They had reached Valley and while the teamsters were loading the sacks into the box car the two guards found a shady spot under the car door.

The wagon had been under surveillance for some time by the Seagrue crooks, Bill and Lug, who were secreted a mile away in the bed of a wash. The two waited patiently until the wagon had been unloaded and started back to the mine. Then scouting their way cautiously down the siding, the thieves, creeping under the farther side of the box car, surprised the guards, disarmed and bound them. Having done this without loss of time, they went to work loading the last of the quartz into the car.

But the guards, though taken unawares, proved no fools. One of them, working quickly and quietly with his hands, got his hands partly loose; in the next moment he had freed his feet. Without betraying himself, he rolled close to his companion—a fat man—bade him turn to him back to back and was releasing him when a shout from Bill warned him he had been seen.

There was no time for hesitation. Springing to his feet the free guard dashed down the road, Bill opening fire on him as he fled.

Bill and Lug, dragging the fat guard down hill, hid him in a ravine near the side track. The two then hiding in turn, watched the train as it stopped at the station below. The agent came out of the office after a few minutes. When the conductor asked about the car the agent and he walked together over to it. They saw it would not be ready to start for some time. TEDDY SAYS

(By American Press)

New York, April 20.—Colonel Roosevelt gave out a statement saying if Germany now does as President Wilson demands, it will prove that Germany would have given in when he wrote the strict accountability note if he had taken the proper position at that time, thus preventing the Lusitania disaster and removing the present cause of friction. And if Germany does not do as the president demands, the colonel said, the strict accountability note is unpardonable.

THAW DIVORCED

(By American Press)

Pittsburgh, April 20.—John W. Thomas, master, appointed to take testimony in the suit of Harry K. Thaw against his wife, Evelyn Thaw, recommended to the court that Thaw be granted a divorce and the decree was ordered by the court.

It is an appreciation, not of the indulgent, but of the exacting, that counts.

CARRANZA GARRISON ROUTS MOB

Anti-American Demonstration at Torreon.

OPPOSED TO EXPEDITION

American Force in Chihuahua Remains Stationary Pending Arrival of Reinforcements—General Hugh L. Scott Sent to the Border—New Steps Likely to Be Taken—Developments in the Mexican Situation.

El Paso, Tex., April 20.—Carranza forces were employed in dispersing big crowds that had gathered for an anti-American demonstration in Torreon. Proclamations had been issued at Torreon, Laredo and Gomez Palacio, calling on all loyal Mexicans to meet in a theater at Gomez Palacio to discuss steps to be taken against the American invaders. British Vice Consul O'Hea promptly reported the circumstance to General Trevino, who immediately took command of the situation. The proclamations calling for the meeting ended with the words: "Viva Mexico and death to the Gringos."

General Santos from Parral reports he has dispersed Chacon's bandit band. He said last Sunday Chacon killed Simon Reyes' son in a dispute.

The Laguna district around San Pedro has been cleared of bandits, General Matias Ramos says.

The American forces in Chihuahua remain stationary. It is stated, awaiting reinforcements from the United States, ordered under way by General Funston to enable General Pershing to lengthen his line of communication in the hunt for Villa. The coming of General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, is awaited with interest, as the army believes some new steps will be taken after the chief of staff thoroughly familiarizes himself with the situation.

A message from General Pershing's headquarters, passed by the censor, quoted General Pershing as saying the expedition may be extended many months if it is not true Villa is dead and that it may be necessary to organize an elaborate secret service system in order to hunt him down.

NO DECISION ON QUESTION

(By American Press)

Washington, April 20.—No decision as to withdrawal of American troops from Mexico is expected for a week or ten days, unless there are new outbreaks against the forces in Mexico to compel immediate action. This was made clear when Secretary Baker dispatched Major General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, to the border as his personal representative to make a complete report on the military problems confronting General Funston.

The administration's final action on General Carranza's suggestion that the expedition be recalled probably will be based largely on what is shown in this report.

Secretary Baker described General Scott's mission as being to assemble complete information as to the border situation for the use of the department.

Accompanied by his aide, Lieutenant Colonel Robert E. L. Michie of the general staff, General Scott will reach General Funston's headquarters at San Antonio Friday evening.

Mr. Baker laid stress in his announcement on the fact that General Funston still is in supreme command of the border situation and expeditionary forces and will remain so. He said the department fully approved every step General Funston has taken.

In Social Circles

Two well known families of the Jeffersonville neighborhood were united in a marriage of marked interest, Wednesday afternoon at a quarter of three o'clock, when Miss Nellie Siebert, daughter of Mrs. E. H. Siebert, became the bride of Mr. Wallace L. Ervin, a prominent young farmer of that section.

The wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride, with the twenty-five guests confined to relatives and close friends. It was a very pretty wedding with spring colors of yellow and white carried in simple, but artistic decorations. The troth was plighted against a background of white, against which yellow flowers and ferns were in effective arrangement.

Rev. Doty, of Jeffersonville, officiated.

Part of the musical program was omitted owing to the sudden illness of the bride's mother on Wednesday night and only a few measures of the Mendelssohn march played by the sister of the bride, Mrs. C. P. Shively of Springfield, and Miss Mable Marchant, of Jamestown, cornetist, anticipated the ceremony.

The bride was charming in a beautiful gown of white voile, lace and insertion, her long veil caught with a wealth of white roses and ferns and her bouquet, a shower of bride's roses.

She is an accomplished musician, a graduate of the College of Music.

Her going away gown was a tailored suit of blue gaberdine; white hat trimmed in blue.

After congratulations a collation was served. A number of handsome wedding gifts were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin left on the late afternoon train for Cincinnati and a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside on the farm of the bridegroom, five miles east of Jeffersonville.

Guests from a distance for the wedding, were: Mrs. C. P. Shively and baby daughter Helen Louise of Springfield; Mrs. J. S. Shoemaker and daughter Katharine of Dayton; Miss Mable Marchant, Mrs. G. W. Conner and daughter Cornelia, of Jamestown; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Green, Sedalia; Miss Grace Zimmerman, Luttrell.

Sixty women thoroughly enjoyed the April meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary Society, at the hospitable home of Mrs. Calvin Holmes with assisting hostesses Mesdames Clarence Baer, Barnett, O'Ferrill, Page, Duffee, Woolhard, Walker, Zimmerman, Will Baker, McCormick, Walter Sprenger, Wyman, Misses Rilla Coffman, Belle DeWitt, Alta Sprenger.

The subjects for the day, India and The Freedmen, were full of interest.

The president, Mrs. Hopkins, conducted the opening service and referred to the coming Presbyterianial meeting this week in Chillicothe, and also to the work in all lines in which the society is interested. Mrs. Willis called for references on the topics of the month and Mrs. Woolhard was in charge of the program.

Mrs. Holmes' Victrola furnished the music, hymns that fitted in beautifully.

Mrs. Jesse Persinger presented a fine paper on "Negro Education"—what Tusgegee and Booker Washington have done for Freedmen education and work going together, as is shown by the 33 trades developed at Tusgegee, the Presbytery schools for boys and begun in Alabama and other practical work.

Miss Emma Jackson had letters from India, from Dr. Anna and Miss Emma Fullerton, who were born in India, but have visited here and have many friends and are doing a big work in India.

Laundour.—The paper was thrilling in its picturing of life in India where the caste rules are so strong and child life is made such a bitter thing.

A pleasurable social hour, with light refreshments closed the meeting.

Browning club women elected to attend the Biennial Convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, convening in New York the 23rd of May, are: Mrs. F. G. Carpenter, Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins, delegates; Mrs. Bella Ustick and Miss Edith Gardner, alternates.

Mrs. T. P. Watts, of Sycamore street, extended the hospitality of her home Wednesday afternoon for the meeting of the Wesley Mite Society.

The beautiful day, the large attendance of forty women, the entertaining program, the delicious luncheon, each contributed to a delightful afternoon.

Yellow and pink snap dragons were used in decoration.

The program included piano solos by Miss Ethel Morgan, Miss Imogene DeWees and Mrs. Henry Willis, reading by Miss Boyer; vocal solo, Mrs. Watts, Mrs. Willis accompanist.

Entertaining with Mrs. Watts were Mesdames McCrea, Willis, Morgan, Wm. DeWees, Carr, Miss Laura DeWees.

Mrs. Roy McClure proved a very charming hostess to the women of the "500" club, Thursday afternoon. A delicious collation followed a merry game.

A happy reunion of brothers and sisters was enjoyed today at the home of Mrs. Jane Van Pelt at Madison Mills. The three sisters, Mrs. Van Pelt, Mrs. Alma Keissenseeder of Jackson Center, Ohio, and Mrs. Ralph Long of Bellefontaine, Ohio, with the two brothers, Mr. Chas. Lindsey of this city and Mr. James Lindsey of Birmingham, Alabama spent several happy hours together bringing back to memory scenes and incidents of long ago. It is needless to say that a feast of good things to eat served to make the enjoyment of the occasion more pronounced. Many old friends and neighbors extended congratulations to the happy brothers and sisters.

McNAIR SOCIAL.

The second quarterly social of the McNair Memorial church was an occasion of pleasure and profit.

The program, under the supervision of Mrs. M. O. Ireland, was varied and interesting. Among the attractive parts was a masterly talk on "Christian Education in the Public Schools and in the Home," by Prof. Probasco, which was listened to with delight and great interest. This was followed by a beautiful solo rendered by L. L. Bowman with Miss Jean Hallingsworth accompanist.

Mr. Bowman's voice was at its best and the hearty encore brought the gifted singer back for a second selection which was fully up to par-excellence.

Other parts were rendered by the young people and children consisting of duets, class songs, recitations and instrumental music all of which reflected credit on the young beginners.

Coffee and cake were served to all and everybody went away feeling that they had enjoyed a pleasant evening and had contributed to the social life of the church.

Mr. Fullerton also, as delegate for Mrs. Fullerton, urged the Dutch Treat Club to take up the "city beautiful" plan, with some attractive way of planting flowers where they would attract attention and beautify the surroundings.

Short speeches were made, upon call, by Messrs. Walter Craig, Earl Barnett and Geo. Hitchcock, as new members of the Y. M. C. A. board, and Henry Brownell as the outgoing president.

SCULPTOR TALKS
ON HINDENBURG

(Associated Press Cable)

Berlin, April 20.—Professor Heinrich Cauer, a well known sculptor who has been engaged for some time on a bust of Hindenburg, contributes to the Bauseitung a pen picture of the popular military leader.

"Hindenburg's entire figure," he writes, "from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet, measures a trifle over six feet. He holds himself with soldierly erectness, but his head is usually bent forward, a ha-sion of a knight in armor. Wore bit which one always notices in big men accustomed to speak with those of lesser stature. He gives you the impression of a knight in armor. His deep voice, and his remarks, often whimsical, but never injurious or ironical, are full of kindness and friendliness.

"If you look at Hindenburg closely you will notice a furrow over the nose drawn between the swellings of the brow. This furrow has been given by the gigantic responsibilities of the present war. You get the impression of strain and even suffering, an impression somehow heightened by the yellow color of the skin. The Field Marshall is lean. Photographs had led me to expect a fat man. But he is actually thin, and this thinness increases the impression of energy in the face and is certainly preferable from the artist's point of view."

Missouri and Kansas Swept By Frightful Storm Which Damages Property to the Amount of $700,000.

By Associated Press Dispatch. Kansas City, April 20.—Reports received up to noon today from the tornado swept sections of Missouri and Kansas indicated the death list in yesterday's storms would reach twenty.

Over 100 persons were injured. Property damage probably will amount to more than $750,000.

HEARS OF VILLA CHASE

By Associated Press Dispatch. Port Clinton, O., April 20.—Captain Chauncey Fitzmorris, lightkeeper on West Sister Island in Lake Erie, received his first news of the chase after Villa by American troops when he came to shore a few days ago after being confined to his island quarters since Dec. 1. During this time he had not seen a newspaper nor communicated with the outside world in any way.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

GENERAL PERSHING'S CAMP AT FRONT, APRIL 20.—AMERICAN AEROPLANES HAVE BEEN FIRED UPON SEVERAL TIMES BY MEXICANS, AND IN AT LEAST ONE CASE THE ASSAILANTS WERE CARRANZA SOLDIERS.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

El Paso, Texas, April 20.—While the American punitive expedition is marking time today in its pursuit of Villa, efforts are being made to strengthen army bases and lines of communication.

Fears are openly expressed by army officers that should an order come to withdraw the American troops, the Villa and other marauding bands will raise the cry that the American troops are in retreat; with the result that American soldiers will be subject to constant night attacks and sniping as they retire from Mexico.

To prevent such warfare against his columns, General Pershing is preparing to be in position to move his forces in large units.

The belief is general at Fort Bliss that the troops will encounter more difficulties in a withdrawal from Mexico than they did on their rapid 400-mile drive from Columbus to Parral.

No word has come from General Cavazos, who, with Colonel Carranza, was reported to have gone to San Francisco Borja to bring back the supposed body of Villa.

Officers of the Juarez garrison fear that General Cavazos has been led into a trap and he and his command ambushed.

A dispatch from Chihuahua today says that the Parral district is quiet and that Villa has passed far south into Durango, many miles from the nearest American column now resting at a point near Parral.

DISCOURAGING

By Associated Press Dispatch.

San Antonio, Texas, April 20.—Early withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico or the authorization of military operations on a big scale must result from General Scott's investigation of the situation, is the opinion of army officers here.

Villa, if he is alive, can be caught, officers here say, only by the adoption of a plan that Mexicans almost certainly would characterize as a war.

He has penetrated so far into Mexico that army officers are convinced further operations must be undertaken with the understanding that armed opposition by factions will be met.

AT STANDSTILL

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, N. M., April 20.—Unofficial reports seeping over the border today indicated that the pursuit of Villa was yet at a standstill and it was believed here that no move would be made in the campaign until after the return to Washington of General Scott, chief of staff, from his consultation at San Antonio with General Funston.

Attention among military men here temporarily was deflected from the Mexican situation to the German situation.

VILLA DEAD

By Associated Press Dispatch.

El Paso, Texas, April 20.—The growing belief that Francisco Villa is dead, whether or not his body has been recovered, was strengthened today by messages received by American concerns here from their agents in Parral, Santa Barbara and vicinity.

All of these messages agreed that the report of Villa's death was common among the peons in northern Chihuahua and was generally accepted as true.

Toledo, O., April 20.—Mosquitoes are not going to be permitted to enjoy their former freedom from harm in this city. An attempt will be made to get wild ducks to hatch for the lagoons and marshes.

Germans Make Drive in New Field in an Attempt to Flank French, Which Is Repulsed.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

London, April 20.—Russia has come to the aid of France and Great Britain in the great struggle on the western front, sending a strong force of troops to fight with the Entente Allies there.

The Russians disembarked at Marseilles at noon today, their arrival noted by General Joffre, who cited their coming as another striking proof of Russia's devotion to the common cause of the allies.

The Russians are believed to have embarked for France from the port of Archangel, on the White Sea.

In this connection, it is to be noted that word reached New York today that they had closed the port of Archangel to all except government traffic.

This may indicate that other troops movements from Archangel to the western front are either under way or in contemplation.

Ambassador Gerard at Berlin has received the American note to Germany.

The Berlin dispatch reporting the arrival of the note said the Ambassador was expected to present it to the Foreign Office this afternoon.

(Associated Press Cable)

London, April 20.—The French again have taken the offensive in the Verdun battle and launched attacks against the German lines on the right bank of the Meuse.

Paris declares the aggressive move was successful, resulting in the capture of portions of German trenches and a redoubt and in the taking of several hundred prisoners.

This operation on the part of General Petain's forces follows closely a German move in a new field in the struggle of the fortress.

This took the form of a drive on the extreme right flank of the French forces in this sector, three successive attacks being delivered 13 miles southeast of Verdun on the edge of the Woevre plain.

Military observers have long expected such operation on the part of the Germans, as part of a long movement intended to force the evacuation of the fortress.

The new attempt was unsuccessful, however, Paris has reported, the Germans, having been driven by a counter attack out of the 200 yards of trenches they had succeeded in occupying.

According to a London dispatch, the British coalition government has been given a new lease of life, a settlement having been reached in the cabinet over the question of conscription.

A plot of wide scope, conducted for the purpose of causing a revolution in India, is announced from London to have been uncovered as a result of the seizure last February of German and Austrian subjects on the liner China, bound from Shanghai for the United States.

WILLIS OPPOSED
TO WILSON PLAN

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., April 20.—Governor Willis today made this comment on President Wilson's action yesterday:

"Basing my opinion of the statement of facts given by the President to Congress, I deem severance of diplomatic relations with Germany at this time inadvisable.

"Our country should maintain strict neutrality and play no favorites. Patriotic Americans should aid the preservation of peace by keeping out of the war zone."

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Youngstown, O., April 20.—Dr. H. G. Huffman, local opometrist who after doctors said he could live but a short time, resorted to fasting and went on greatly reduced diet 47 days in 1914 and 31 days in 1915, has announced he is beginning a third fast. This time he's wife will also eat very sparingly. This will be in accordance with Dr. Huffman's statement that "fasting is nature's most rational method of getting diseased bodies and minds back into conditions of ease and health."

BAINBRIDGE BOOZE

Too much Bainbridge booze caused Jock Holmes to fall into the police net as he stepped from the D. T. & I. Wednesday afternoon, and after a night in jail he left $10, all he had, with Mayor Oster, and a promise to pay the remaining 35c and an additional 5c having borrowed the latter to get tobacco.

When arrested the man had a quart of whiskey, six bottles of beer and quart of alcohol. This was kept at the Mayor's office, and Holmes was informed that he could have the same when he got ready to leave the city, Solicitor Gregg having ruled that the man was entitled to the booze under the above circumstances.

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, April 20.—Count von Bernstorff went to the State Department today for a conference with Secretary Lansing. After the conference, it was learned that German diplomats regard the receipt of a reply from Germany within two or three days as physically impossible. It was thought a reply could not be received here before ten days. It was pointed out that Easter Monday is a holiday in Germany, and that necessary consultations of

SUNDAY, MAY 14, IS MOTHER'S DAY

By designation of Miss Anna Jarvis, founder of Mothers' Day, Mrs. Samuel L. Black of Lancaster is looking after the observance in Ohio and has just sent to the mayors of 100 Ohio cities a request that they supplement the governor's proclamation of Sunday, May 14.

The desire is, as in other years, to have everybody wear on that day a white flower, preferably a carnation—white being symbolic of the purity of mother love. There has been some disposition in the past to wear the white for mothers who are dead and pink for those who are living, but it is the thought of Miss Jarvis that this arrangement misses the point, which is to pay a tribute to the purity of the mother love. So, if there is need of variation from the standard of a white carnation, it should be in the flower and not in the color.

TIRED WORKING MEN

A Local Druggist Suggests a Remedy For Overworked, Run-Down Men.

The following letter from Manager Hodes, recounts the experience and condition of many Washington Court House men. Read this letter and our offer which follows:

Brooklyn, N. Y., "I am a general office manager, and became so nervous and run-down in health that I lost my appetite and finally my health broke down completely, largely because of overwork. I tried Beef Iron and Wine, and other remedies without help. I saw Vinol advertised, and soon after taking it I noticed an improvement. I now have a hearty appetite, sleep better, feel better and have gained considerable in weight." Samuel Hodes, 501 Stone Ave.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the three oldest and most famous tonics, viz.—the medicinal elements of fresh cod livers without oil, peptonate of iron and beef peptone.

We ask every run-down, overworked man in Washington Court House to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that their money will be refunded if it fails to help them as it did Mr. Hodes. Blackmer & Tanquary. Advt.

WILLHITE MEETINGS

The tabernacle program is drawing large crowds each evening. Over 2000 people were present Sunday evening. Beginning yesterday afternoon meetings will be held each day at 2:30 o'clock.

At the Sunday evening meeting there were eighteen conversions, and many more who asked for prayer. On Wednesday evening, music will be furnished by a local quartette of ladies and for Thursday night the management expects to secure a male quartette.

It is the idea of evangelist Willhite to hold shop meetings at the various industries during the noon hour and accordingly the first one will be held today (Wednesday) at Globe furnace. Others will follow as appointments are made.—Jackson Herald.

The Preferred Clothes of the American Young Man

THERE'S hardly a young man in this broad land who isn't familiar with the name of Adler-Rochester Towne Togs—

And who doesn't know—somehow or other—that they are the standard of Quality.

Quality of Style, first of all. The fine, free spirit of design that every young man wants—the smart, new freshness that the designer puts into every line and swing of the coat; the even, custom tailored drape of the perfect fitting trousers.

Quality of Material, as well. Clothes of guaranteed worth—patterns of distinctive beauty—tones and colors that stand out from the crowd.

We have these fine clothes—our new Spring stocks were never so widely varied; never so filled with the kind of styles our own young men want.

Easter is hovering pretty close, remember --and you will be needing new things soon.

There's lots of time, NOW. Later, we can't say. Come in today.

The "Last Word" to Germany
"What this government foresaw must happen has happened. Tragedy has followed tragedy on the high seas in such fashion, with such attendant circumstances as to make it grossly evident that warfare of such sort, if warfare it be, cannot be carried on without the most palpable violation of the dictates alike of right and humanity," President Wilson told Congress, convened in joint session, Wednesday noon, when he announced that he had sent a virtual ultimatum to Germany.

The President of the United States has spoken the last word to the Imperial German government in the long diplomatic controversy which has been going on since February, 1915.

Sober thinking people have long foreseen that Germany could not continue on the piratical course of warfare inaugurated by her submarine commanders without, sooner or later, reaching this grave stage in a crisis that has so long endured.

The President has been patient under the most extraordinarily trying circumstances.

The German military power has refused to keep its submarine warfare "within the bounds set by either reason or the heart of mankind" and the chief executive of this great neutral nation, who has done his utmost to preserve friendly relations, has notified the German government that such warfare must stop immediately.

There can be no further discussion of acts inexcusable on any principle of law or humanity.

Our demand is made in the name of humanity. There is nothing selfish about it. The rights of humanity are the predicate of the note.

Congress has been fully advised of all the details of the long drawn out controversy and the "accumulated evidence" of Germany's violation of all assurances has been placed before the legislative body.

The only discordant note in America's support of the President is the utterance of Representative Mann, who openly asserts that the action was taken for political effect. That assertion may be passed without comment and charitably excused as due to incompetency.

The nation supported the President in his patient dealings with the great issues which have confronted him and the nation now, when patient endurance is no longer possible, supports him when "a just conception of the rights of mankind" force him to take the step he has taken "with the utmost solemnity and firmness."

The position of President Wilson is unassailable. His logic is irrefutable and the clearness with which he states the case of the American people and the rights of humanity admits of no challenge.

Germany cannot longer remain the enemy of humanity and maintain friendly relations with the United States.

Local Labor Shortage

The fact that two of Washington's prosperous manufacturing institutions—the shoe factory and the mitten factory—have been compelled to establish branch plants in nearby cities and towns while, of course, a matter of regret to Washington people, at the same time speaks volumes for the activity and the growth of these industries and for the demand for workers in this city.

In brief a shortage of labor in this community is proof indisputable of its abundant prosperity and the plenty of work to be done here.

That local manufacturing concerns are compelled to locate branches elsewhere in order to obtain labor demonstrates the existence of a much healthier community condition than would be disclosed if the people of the community were going elsewhere in hunt of work.

Washington regrets, of course, that these local concerns are compelled to go elsewhere for labor, but at the same time we are pleased to learn that Wilmington will thus be enabled to secure work for its unemployed.

All of which calls to mind the fact that the houses for rent in this city are "few and far between," another positive proof of the city's prosperity.

Poetry For Today
RILEY'S ADMONITION.
When over the fair fame of friend or foe
The shadow of disgrace shall fall;
Instead
Of words of blame or proof of thus and so,
Let something good be said.
Forget not that no fellow being yet
May fall so low but love may lift his head;
Even the cheek of shame with tears
is wet,
If something good be said.

No generous heart may vainly turn aside
In ways of sympathy; no soul so dead
But may awake strong and glorified,
If something good be said.
And so I charge ye, by the thorny crown,
And by the cross on which the Savior bled,
And by your own soul's hope for fair renown,
Let something good be said.
—James Whitcomb Riley.

The Great Day In Russia.
To the members of the Greek Orthodox church Easter is the greatest day in the ecclesiastical and secular calendars. Especially is this true in Russia. What Christmas gifts are to Americans and persons of other nationalities Easter gifts are to Russians. At Easter the Russians celebrate not only the miraculous resurrection of Christ and their own spiritual freedom from the bonds of sin, but the festival also suggests to them in a very eloquent manner the resurrection of the whole earth and the release of all the agencies of nature from the enthrallment of winter.

HISTORY WAS MADE
Wilson's Address Before Congress Favorably Received.

Washington, April 20.—While President Wilson's address in the main was favorably received by congress, there was some adverse comment by some Republicans and dissatisfaction on the part of some Democrats. The president was criticised by some because he sent his note to Germany before he had taken congress into his confidence. Those members of congress say the president promised to take no decisive action without informing congress and that he failed to lay the matter before the legislative body until it was too late for congress to act.

Most of the leaders, Democratic and Republican, thought the president hardly could do less, and some expressed the opinion that his action would not lead to war. Republican Leader Mann openly attacked the president for his stand. He characterized it as a political play.

Both the president's address and the American note declare in unequivocal terms that only by Germany's acceding to the demand can the breaking off of relations altogether be prevented.

In his address before congress the president concluded as follows: "I have deemed it my duty to say to the Imperial government that if it is still its purpose to prosecute relentless and indiscriminate warfare against vessels of commerce by the use of submarines, notwithstanding the now demonstrated impossibility of conducting that warfare in accordance with what the government of the United States must consider the sacred and indisputable rules of international law and the universally recognized dictates of humanity, the government of the United States is at last forced to the conclusion that there is but one course it can pursue, and that unless the Imperial government should now immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of warfare against passenger and freight carrying vessels this government can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations with the government of the German empire altogether."

The president added that he arrived at this decision with the deepest regret.

If Christ Be Not Risen.
If Christ be not risen, then death has absolute power in the world. If the cross of mankind kills so that there can be no future making alive then Christ himself becomes the greatest witness to this fact, the wisest and most powerful and purest of men having no defense against death and no power afterward of returning into life.—Rev. Dr. Richard S. Storrs.

FOR THE EASTER TABLE.
The favorite Easter colors—violet, green, yellow and white—lend themselves so attractively to the table decorations, and it is so easy to make centerpieces of fluffy chickens or rabbit families that most women feel quite competent to arrange their own Easter tables. However, the hostess who is willing to accept her schemes ready made may profit by the advice of one who is an expert in arranging tables.

Corns Gone!
By jiminy! I'm happy—feel like a young colt—here I've been worrying about that hard, painful corn for months and months without knowing that I could be cured almost instantly. Comfort Corn Plasters did the work—and did it well—the old troublesome corn comes out with the root—no cutting—no dangerous drugs or acids—just a wonderful medicated plaster that does the trick—easy to put on—and the corn's gone before morning. Why continue to suffer—just ask for Comfort Corn Plasters—guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money back. Only 25c the package.

BADLY HURT IN 18-FOOT FALL

As the result of a fall sustained Wednesday afternoon while roofing the new house being erected on the Jennie Long farm* on the White pike, Wayne township, Charles McGath, of New Holland sustained injuries of a very serious nature when the scaffolding upon which he and Ernest Morris, of New Holland, were standing, collapsed.

The two men were some 18 feet from the ground when the scaffolding gave way, and Morris was in a position where he succeeded in grasping a lath and prevented himself from falling as the scaffolding dropped away from beneath him.

However, McGath, who is about 35 years of age, was less fortunate than Morris, and went down with the scaffolding, sustaining a fracture of the right arm, fracture of bones in the left hand, left collar bone broken in two places, skull probably fractured and serious cuts and bruises.

The man was rendered unconscious for sometime, and it was first believed that his injuries were fatal. He was removed from the broken scaffolding and Dr. Kaler of New Holland summoned.

After working over the injured man for sometime, the Daily ambulance from New Holland was summoned and the man moved to the home of his father, Samuel McGath, where he is now in a serious condition, although his speedy recovery is expected.

Thursday he was unconscious, but complained of excruciating pain in his head, due to the concussion suffered when he struck upon the sharp edge of a section of the scaffolding, laying the scalp open for several inches.

RED TAPE ON EAST SEWER IS UNWINDING

If present steps do not fail, the East End sewer, noted for many years as a source of minor floods and annoyances generally, may be properly improved before snow flies again.

Solicitor Gregg has prepared the papers necessary to formally place the matter in the hands of the county commissioners, and if no hitch is experienced, the improvement of the ditch from the Pennsylvania railroad to the B. & O. railroad is expected.

A petition for the improvement, directed to the County Commissioners and signed by Mayor Oster, has been filed with Auditor Pine to be submitted to the commissioners at their next meeting.

The ditch has been tiled with sewer tile from the creek to a point about midway between Columbus avenue and the Lewis pike, above that point the ditch is open and drains into a sewer inadequate to take care of flood waters.

ADDRESSES LETTER TO ALL MOTHERS

Miss Sutton, Welfare Nurse, has addressed the following letter to mothers in general, relative to the Mother's Conference, the first of which will be held in this city Saturday afternoon.

"Baby health means Washington's wealth," as you are familiar with the high infant mortality in this city due mostly from improper feeding of children under three years of age, we have found it necessary to start a prophylactic station and conference in the care and feeding of infants, especially bottle-fed babies.

This conference is for mothers and expectant mothers in which they will be instructed in the proper care and feeding of their baby under the directions of their family physician.

Home visits will be made whenever necessary for the interest of the child.

The object is to decrease the death rate among our babies, especially during the summer, in which so many die of the so-called summer complaint which is due to improper feeding.

Dear Mothers; your child's health is your individual problem, no doubt a hard one, but it is one of our community problems and we are here to help you to keep your baby well, that he may grow to be a strong and healthy citizen. We expect your hearty co-operation in the interest and welfare of your child.

These conferences will be held weekly at the Welfare Rooms at Market and Main streets, every Saturday at 2:30 p. m., starting April 22. Come and let us help you.

ANNA LAURA SUTTON,
Public Health Nurse.

TRIAL POSTPONED COSTS NOT ASSURED

Alton Porter, accused of bootlegging, appeared before Mayor Oster, Thursday morning, to stand trial on the charge lodged against him by Elizabeth Minshall, but failure of the costs being guaranteed and also that the Minshall woman and her attorney did not appear at the hour set, resulted in a postponement of the case for ten days.

The marines have been instructed to take over the huge aerial transmission station and permit no messages to be sent without the authorization of the navy department.

Washington, April 20.—Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, sent to Berlin a long dispatch, interpreting the situation in Washington and making certain recommendations. PRESIDENT PUTS IT UP TO KAISER

Present Methods of Submarine Warfare Must Cease.

NOTE SENT TO GERMANY

Severance of Diplomatic Relations Between United States and the Imperial Government Will Follow Rejection of American Demands. Count Von Bernstorff Determined to Fight to the End.

Washington, April 20.—The note President Wilson sent to Berlin makes the same demand on Germany that was outlined in the president's address to congress.

Germany must immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of submarine warfare against passenger and freight carrying ships or the United States will sever diplomatic relations.

At the state department the president's demand is interpreted to mean that Germany must abandon its submarine campaign against merchant shipping altogether. The German embassy interprets the note to mean that present methods must be abandoned and that less rigorous methods of submarine warfare or more discrimination in attacks on neutral ships would meet the president's demand. Unfortunately, officials point out the president's message and his note are both ambiguous in this regard.

Opportunity to Reply.

The note leaves Germany an opportunity to reply that the imperial government will endeavor to conform to Wilson's demand by a revision of the rules now governing the warning of passenger ships and merchantmen and by agreeing adequately to provide for the safety of the crews. There are indications that Germany might agree to do this.

Count Von Bernstorff will make a final effort to avert a diplomatic break by reopening negotiations along these lines. Officials here said that negotiations might be reopened, provided Germany immediately declared and effected an abandonment of its submarine warfare before these negotiations were undertaken. In other words, if Germany will agree to hold its submarine campaign in abeyance while it is negotiating with the United States, there would be no disposition upon the part of the United States government to press matters unduly. But it was made clear that an immediate cessation of Germany's submarine campaign was the only contingency on which the matter could be reopened. There is grave doubt here whether the imperial government will agree to this, and if it refuses a break seems almost inevitable.

Germany's Position.

The word "immediately" in the president's demand is likely to be the outstanding feature so far as Germany is concerned. Count Von Bernstorff has not, of course, had time to learn officially his government's views, but he understands pretty well what Berlin's attitude will be. He is understood to despair of any immediate cessation of the submarine campaign unless Great Britain in the meantime relaxes the rigors of the blockade. Germany is willing to declare a truce in submarine activities in order that this question may be discussed and settled with the United States, provided Great Britain will take similar action in the blockade. But the German government is unwilling to permit Great Britain to continue tightening the blockade while it is temporarily forced to abandon its campaign of reprisal.

This is the wording of the demand that the president in his note makes upon Germany: "Unless the imperial government should now immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of submarine warfare against passenger and freight carrying vessels, the government of the United States can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations with the German empire altogether."

Features of the Note.

The American note to Berlin declares:

"The government of the United States has been very patient. It has accepted the successive explanations and assurances of the imperial government as of course given in entire sincerity and good faith, and has hoped even against hope, that it would prove to be possible for the imperial government so to order and control the acts of its naval commanders as to square its policy with the recognized principles of humanity as embodied in the law of nations. It has made every allowance for unprecedented conditions and has been willing to wait until the facts became unmistakable and were susceptible of only one interpretation.

"It now owes it to a just regard for its own rights to say to the imperial government that that time has come.

"It has become painfully evident to us that the position which it took at the very outset is inevitable, namely, the use of submarines for the destruction of an enemy's commerce is of necessity because of the very character of the vessels employed and the very methods of attack which their employment of course involves, utterly incompatible with the principles of humanity, the long established and incontrovertible rights of neutrals and the sacred immunities of non-combatants.

"If it is still the purpose of the imperial government to prosecute relentless and indiscriminate warfare against vessels of commerce by the use of submarines, without regard to what the government of the United States must consider the sacred and indisputable rules of international law and the universally recognized dictates of humanity, the government of the United States is at last forced to the conclusion that there is but one course it can pursue.

Break Threatened.

"Unless the imperial government should now immediately declare and effect an abandonment of its present methods of submarine warfare against passenger and freight carrying vessels, the government of the United States can have no choice but to sever diplomatic relations with the German empire altogether. This action the government of the United States contemplates with the greatest reluctance, but feels constrained to take in behalf of humanity and the rights of neutral nations."

The United States, the communication declares, considers the torpedoing of the Sussex not only proved by the evidence, but actually substantiated by the German disclaimer of responsibility.

The general feeling is that the break, if it occurs, will come within a week. It is known that Secretary Lansing expects to hear from Ambassador Gerard within two or three days informing him of Germany's reply to the president's demand for immediate action. If the Berlin government delays the reply more than a few days an urgent demand for a reply is likely to be sent to Berlin by the United States government, according to state department officials.

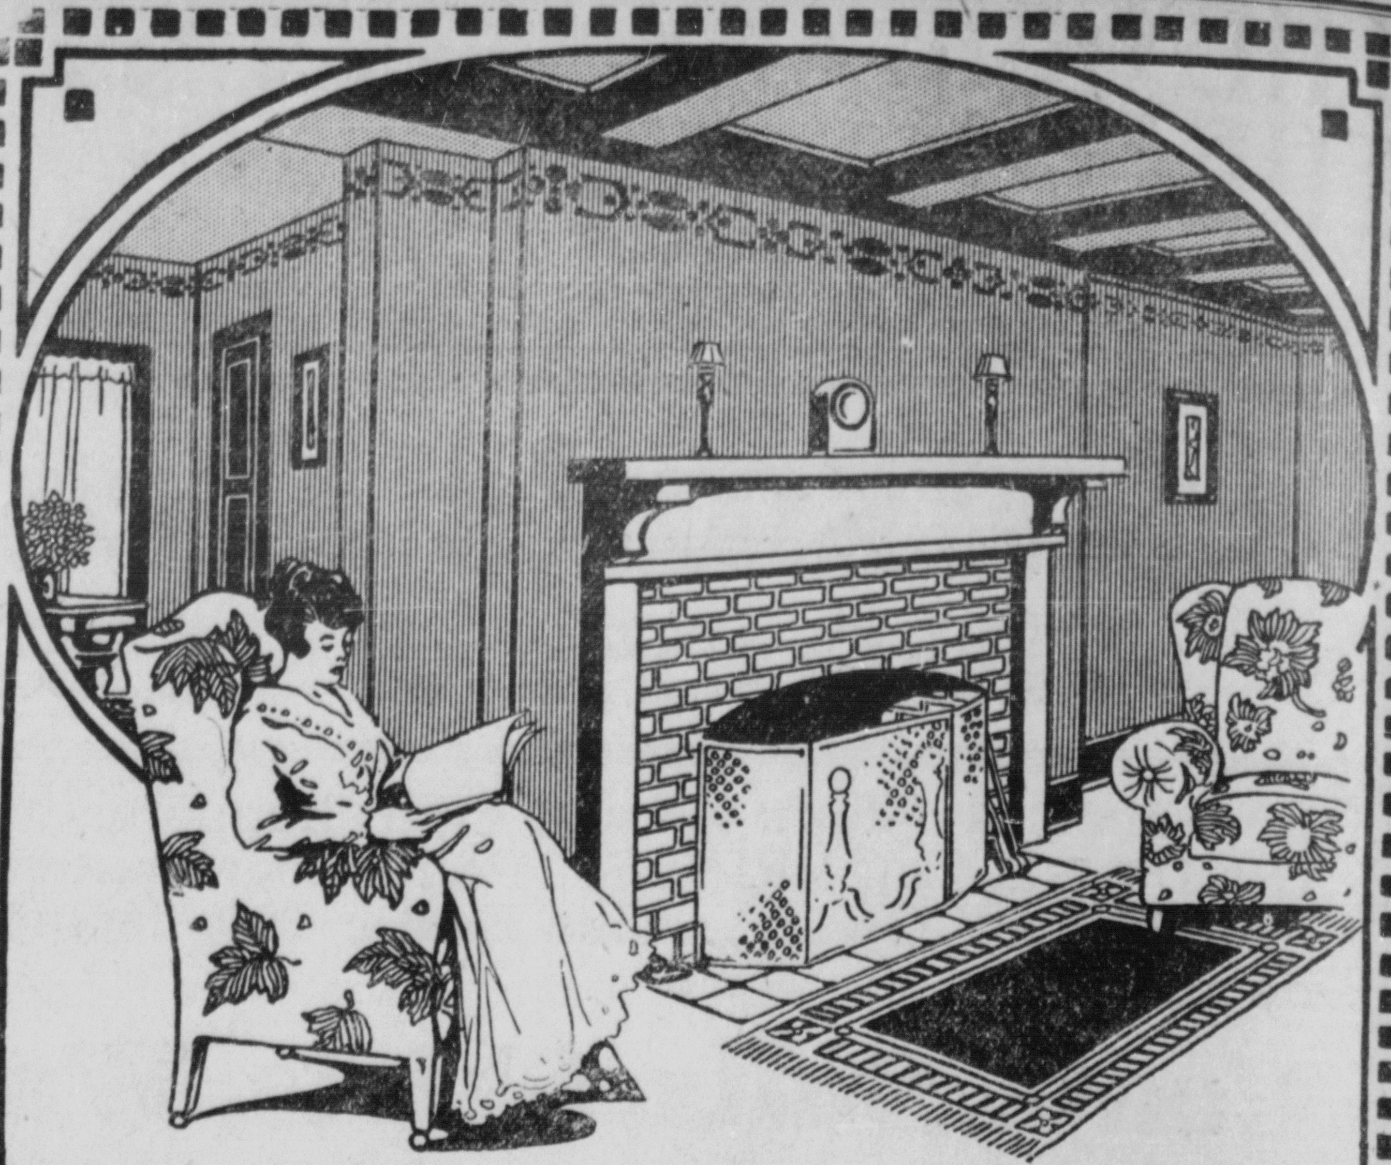

Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, was at the state department today. He regards the prospects of adjusting the matter as almost an impossibility, but is determined to fight to the end. He has not heard from his government and entertains little hope that Germany will agree to abandon the submarine warfare against merchant shipping. The note contains evidence that the Sussex was sunk by a German torpedo.

"PUT 'EM BACK"

(By American Press)

Washington, April 20.—Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, made a formal and emphatic demand on Secretary of State Lansing for the immediate return of the papers which department of justice agents seized from Wolf Von Igel, private secretary to Captain Von Papen, former military attaché of the German embassy. The ambassador considers the seizure of the papers as direct violation of the recognized rights of a German diplomat, just as he considers the arrest of Von Igel an infringement on the sovereign rights of Germany. Secretary Lansing practically ordered the department of justice to release Von Igel from custody. Mr. Lansing also directed that the papers be returned.

GERMANS LAUNCHING ATTACKS

Capture Stone Quarry Near Village of Haudremont.

ARTILLERY ACTION NOTED

French Front Between Cumieres and Le Mort Homme and Hill 304 Objects of German Assault—Russians Rout Turkish Force Near Erzerum. Italians Report Capture of Mountain Pass.

London, April 20.—In a furious bayonet attack, in which heavy casualties were inflicted on the French, the Germans captured a stone quarry near Haudremont, northeast of Verdun.

There has been considerable artillery activity west of the Meuse on Hill 304, and the French lines between Le Mort Homme hill and Cumieres. At Les Eparges the Germans, after three attacks, entered French trenches on 200 yards, but were immediately expelled from there, suffering serious loss.

Artillery duels are still in progress on the Russian front, but there has been no important changes in positions. A Russian attack against Austrian positions on the upper Sereth river, in Galicia, was repulsed. The Italians have captured Monte Fume Pass from the Austrians and taken the extreme western peak of Monte Anora, where the Austrian trenches were shattered with heavy casualties to their occupants.

Still another defeat of the Turks in the region of Erzerum is recorded by the Russians. Near Aschkala, the Russians in a night attack captured strongly organized hills and inflicted severe casualties on the Turks, who left hundreds of dead on the field of battle.

FOR BETTER ATTENTIONS

(By American Press)

Copenhagen, Denmark, April 20.—At the suggestion of the warring powers a plan is being considered by the Danish authorities for bringing prisoners who are seriously ill to Denmark, where they can receive better treatment than is possible in the overcrowded camps in hostile countries. This would include prisoners from all the powers at war. It is thought likely that one of the smaller Danish islands will be used for the purpose. The Danish authorities and the Danish people express great sympathy and everything will be done to carry out the idea.

THE GIRL AND THE GAME

A STORY OF MOUNTAIN RAILROAD LIFE

by FRANK H. SPEARMAN

AUTHOR OF "WHISPERING SMITH," "THE MOUNTAIN DIVIDE," "STRATEGY OF GREAT RAILROADS," ETC

NOVELIZED FROM THE MOVING PICTURE PLAY OF THE SAME NAME. PRODUCED BY THE SIGNAL FILM CORPORATION.

SYNOPSIS.

Little Helen Holmes, daughter of General Holmes, railroad man, is rescued from imminent danger on a scenic railroad by George Storm, a newsboy. Grown to young womanhood, Helen saves Storm, now a fireman, her father, and his friends, Amos Rhinelander, financier, and Robert Seagru, promoter, from a threatened collision. Safebreakers employed by Seagru steal General Holmes' survey plans of the cut off line for the Tidewater, fatally wound the general and escape. Her father's estate badly involved by his death, Helen goes to work on the Tidewater. Helen recovers the survey plans from Seagru, and though they are taken from her, finds an accidentally made proof of the survey blueprint. Storm is employed by Rhinelander. Spike, befriended by Helen, in turn saves her and the right-of-way contracts when Seagru kidnaps her. Helen and Storm win for Rhinelander a race against Seagru for right-of-way. Helen, Storm and Rhinelander rescue Spike from Seagru's men. Spike steals records to protect Rhinelander and Storm and Helen saves Spike from death in the burning of the courthouse.

While the negotiations had been taking shape, a freight train had pulled in a few miles distant at Valley station, where the crew set out an empty box car for loading. A teamster from the mine was summoned by the agent who handed him a note for the mine foreman. When the teamster reached the mine, the new purchasers were taking possession. He handed the message to the foreman. The foreman read:

Have empty box car here for high-grade ore. Send it down right away and local will pick the car up this P. M.

He turned to Rhinelander, showing him the message and pointing to the sacks ready for shipment. Rhinelander was willing to ship the ore ready for the wagons at once. "All right," he said, nodding to the foreman. "Send what you have to the smelter right away."

Storm was given authority to put this part of the job through as quickly as possible. While the details were being talked over between Rhinelander and his assistant, neither of them noticed that they were overheard by Seagru's tools, Bill and Lug, who now decided that there might be a chance to break into the mining business at their own proper risk and for their own private account. When Seagru called them from the discussion of their ambitious project, he gave orders to Bill to drive back to Las Vegas. Reaching the station he took the train for the city.

With their boss out of the way, his two worthies thought the moment opportune for their own plans and taking the machine they started back for the mine. Wagons—convoys by two guards carrying sawed-off shotguns—had been loaded at the mine with the valuable quartz ore. They had reached Valley and while the teamsters were loading the sacks into the box car the two guards found a shady spot under the car door.

The wagon had been under surveillance for some time by the Seagru crooks, Bill and Lug, who were secreted a mile away in the bed of a wash. The two waited patiently until the wagon had been unloaded and started back to the mine. Then scouting their way cautiously down the siding, the thieves, creeping under the farther side of the box car, surprised the guards, disarmed and bound them. Having done this without loss of time, they went to work loading the last of the quartz into the car.

But the guards, though taken unaware, proved no fools. One of them, working quickly and quietly with his bonds, got his hands partly loose; in the next moment he had freed his feet. Without betraying himself, he rolled close to his companion—a fat man—bade him turn to him back to back and was releasing him when a shout from Bill warned him he had been seen.

There was no time for hesitation. Springing to his feet the free guard dashed down the road, Bill opening fire on him as he fled.

Bill and Lug, dragging the fat guard down hill, hid him in a ravine near the side track. The two then hiding in turn, watched the train as it stopped at the station below. The agent came out of the office after a few minutes. When the conductor asked about the car the agent and he walked together over to it. They saw it would not be ready to start for some time.

TEDDY SAYS

(By American Press)

New York, April 20.—Colonel Roosevelt gave out a statement saying if Germany now does as President Wilson demands, it will prove that Germany would have given in when he wrote the strict accountability note if he had taken the proper position at that time, thus preventing the Lusitania disaster and removing the present cause of friction. And if Germany does not do as the president demands, the colonel said, the strict accountability note is unpardonable.

CARRANZA GARRISON ROUTS MOB

Anti-American Demonstration at Torreon.

OPPOSED TO EXPEDITION

American Force in Chihuahua Remains Stationary Pending Arrival of Reinforcements—General Hugh L. Scott Sent to the Border—New Steps Likely to Be Taken—Developments in the Mexican Situation.

El Paso, Tex., April 20.—Carranza forces were employed in dispersing big crowds that had gathered for an anti-American demonstration in Torreon. Proclamations had been issued at Torreon, Laredo and Gomez Palacio, calling on all loyal Mexicans to meet in a theater at Gomez Palacio to discuss steps to be taken against the American invaders. British Vice Consul O'Hea promptly reported the circumstance to General Trevino, who immediately took command of the situation. The proclamations calling for the meeting ended with the words: "Viva Mexico and death to the Gringos."

General Santos from Parral reports he has dispersed Chacon's bandit band. He said last Sunday Chacon killed Simon Reyes' son in a dispute.

The Laguna district around San Pedro has been cleared of bandits, General Matias Ramos says.

The American forces in Chihuahua remain stationary, it is stated, awaiting reinforcements from the United States, ordered under way by General Funston to enable General Pershing to lengthen his line of communication in the hunt for Villa. The coming of General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, is awaited with interest, as the army believes some new steps will be taken after the chief of staff thoroughly familiarizes himself with the situation.

A message from General Pershing's headquarters, passed by the censor, quoted General Pershing as saying the expedition may be extended many months if it is not true Villa is dead and that it may be necessary to organize an elaborate secret service system in order to hunt him down.

NO DECISION ON QUESTION

(By American Press)

Washington, April 20.—No decision as to withdrawal of American troops from Mexico is expected for a week or ten days, unless there are new outbreaks against the forces in Mexico to compel immediate action. This was made clear when Secretary Baker dispatched Major General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, to the border as his personal representative to make a complete report on the military problems confronting General Funston.

The administration's final action on General Carranza's suggestion that the expedition be recalled probably will be based largely on what is shown in this report.

Secretary Baker described General Scott's mission as being to assemble complete information as to the border situation for the use of the department.

Accompanied by his aide, Lieutenant Colonel Robert E. L. Michie of the general staff, General Scott will reach General Funston's headquarters at San Antonio Friday evening.

Mr. Baker laid stress in his announcement on the fact that General Funston still is in supreme command of the border situation and expeditionary forces and will remain so. He said the department fully approved every step General Funston has taken.

In Social Circles

Two well known families of the Jeffersonville neighborhood were united in a marriage of marked interest, Wednesday afternoon at a quarter of three o'clock, when Miss Nellie Siebert, daughter of Mrs. E. H. Siebert, became the bride of Mr. Wallace L. Ervin, a prominent young farmer of that section.

The wedding was celebrated at the home of the bride, with the twenty-five guests confined to relatives and close friends. It was a very pretty wedding with spring colors of yellow and white carried in simple, but artistic decorations. The troth was pledged against a background of white, against which yellow flowers and ferns were in effective arrangement.

Rev. Doty, of Jeffersonville, officiated.

Part of the musical program was omitted owing to the sudden illness of the bride's mother on Wednesday night and only a few measures of the Mendelssohn march played by the sister of the bride, Mrs. C. P. Shively of Springfield, and Miss Mable Marchant, of Jamestown, cornetist, anticipated the ceremony.

The bride was charming in a beautiful gown of white voile, lace and insertion, her long veil caught with a wealth of white roses and ferns and her bouquet, a shower of bride's roses.

She is an accomplished musician, a graduate of the College of Music.

Her going away gown was a tailored suit of blue gaberdine; white hat trimmed in blue.

After congratulations a collation was served. A number of handsome wedding gifts were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin left on the late afternoon train for Cincinnati and a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside on the farm of the bridegroom, five miles east of Jeffersonville.

Guests from a distance for the wedding, were: Mrs. C. P. Shively and baby daughter Helen Louise of Springfield; Mrs. J. S. Shoemaker and daughter Katharine of Dayton; Miss Mable Marchant, Mrs. G. W. Conner and daughter Cornelia, of Jamestown; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Green, Sedalia; Miss Grace Zimmerman, Luttrell.

Sixty women thoroughly enjoyed the April meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary Society, at the hospitable home of Mrs. Calvin Holmes with assisting hostesses Mesdames Clarence Baer, Barnett, O'Ferril, Page, Duffee, Woollard, Walker, Zimmerman, Will Baker, McCormick, Walter Sprenger, Wyman, Misses Rilla Coffman, Belle DeWitt, Alta Sprenger.

The subjects for the day, India and The Freedmen, were full of interest.

The president, Mrs. Hopkins, conducted the opening service and referred to the coming Presbyterian meeting this week in Chillicothe, and also to the work in all lines in which the society is interested. Mrs. Willis called for references on the topics of the month and Mrs. Woollard was in charge of the program.

Mrs. Holmes' Victrola furnished the music, hymns that fitted in beautifully.

Mrs. Jesse Persinger presented a fine paper on "Negro Education"—what Tuskegee and Booker Washington have done for Freedmen education and work going together, as is shown by the 33 trades developed at Tuskegee, the Presbytery schools for boys and begun in Alabama and other practical work.

Miss Emma Jackson had letters from India, from Dr. Anna and Miss Emma Fullerton, who were born in India, but have visited here and have many friends and are doing a big work in India.

Landour.—The paper was thrilling in its picturing of life in India where the caste rules are so strong and child life is made such a bitter thing.

A pleasurable social hour, with light refreshments closed the meeting.

Browning club women elected to attend the Biennial Convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, convening in New York the 23rd of May, are: Mrs. F. G. Carpenter, Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins, delegates; Mrs. Bella Ustick and Miss Edith Gardner, alternates.

Mrs. T. P. Watts, of Sycamore street, extended the hospitality of her home Wednesday afternoon for the meeting of the Wesley Mite Society.

The beautiful day, the large attendance of forty women, the entertaining program, the delicious luncheon, each contributed to a delightful afternoon.

Yellow and pink snap dragons were used in decoration.

The program included piano solos by Miss Ethel Morgan, Miss Inogene DeWees and Mrs. Henry Willis, reading by Miss Boyer; vocal solo, Mrs. Watts, Mrs. Willis accompanist.

Entertaining with Mrs. Watts were Mesdames McCrea, Willis, Morgan, Wm. DeWees, Carr, Miss Laura DeWees.

Mrs. Roy McClure proved a very charming hostess to the women of the "500" club, Thursday afternoon. A delicious collation followed a merry game.

A happy reunion of brothers and sisters was enjoyed today at the home of Mrs. Jane Van Pelt at Madison Mills. The three sisters, Mrs. Van Pelt, Mrs. Alma Keisseneeder of Jackson Center, Ohio, and Mrs. Ralph Long of Bellefontaine, Ohio, with the two brothers, Mr. Chas. Lindsey of this city and Mr. James Lindsey of Birmingham, Alabama spent several happy hours together bringing back to memory scenes and incidents of long ago. It is needless to say that a feast of good things to eat served to make the enjoyment of the occasion more pronounced. Many old friends and neighbors extended congratulations to the happy brothers and sisters.

McNAIR SOCIAL.

The second quarterly social of the McNair Memorial church was an occasion of pleasure and profit.

The program, under the supervision of Mrs. M. O. Ireland, was varied and interesting. Among the attractive parts was a masterly talk on "Christian Education in the Public Schools and in the Home," by Prof. Probasco, which was listened to with delight and great interest. This was followed by a beautiful solo rendered by L. L. Bowman with Miss Jean Hallingsworth accompanist.

Mr. Bowman's voice was at its best and the hearty encore brought the gifted singer back for a second selection which was fully up to par excellence.

Other parts were rendered by the young people and children consisting of duets, class songs, recitations and instrumental music all of which reflected credit on the young beginners.

Coffee and cake were served to all and everybody went away feeling that they had enjoyed a pleasant evening and had contributed to the social life of the church.

Frank M. Fullerton and Chas. Allen discussed the coming horse show and sale, Mr. Allen stating that prospects were for the biggest show and sale in recent years.

Mr. Fullerton also, as delegate for Mrs. Fullerton, urged the Dutch Treat Club to take up the "city beautiful" plan, with some attractive way of planting flowers where they would attract attention and beautify the surroundings.

Short speeches were made, upon call, by Messrs. Walter Craig, Earl Barnett and Geo. Hitchcock, as new members of the Y. M. C. A. board, and Henry Brownell as the outgoing president.
